

Shoe4Africa opens another centre

ATHLETICS: Kaborowo village located in the heart of Elgeyo Marakwet County received a boost at the weekend when Shoe4Africa opened a new academy and donated talents and educational equipment to aid the youth in the region.

Shoe4Africa director Taby Tanser, who also doubles up as the sponsor of the women 5km races in Iten for the past eight years, named the academy Shoe4Africa Moses Kiptanui Academy and it is geared towards tapping and nurturing talents from young children and offering education.
